100 Diadem St, Lismore

“Mable”- Classic Old World Home On Large Block

This classic beauty is set on a large, flat block close to Lismore Square, local schools, hospitals and downtown Lismore.

Featuring many beautiful and original features throughout this home will appeal to first home buyers, investors and families.

The block is large and flat with ample side access available and room to build a large shed or secondary dwelling at the rear (STCA). The home has some lovely features including polished timber floorboards throughout, ornate high ceilings, French doors and traditional fret working.

The bathroom and kitchen have been renovated to a good standard and the home sits high out of flood and has loads of great possibilities. Set in a spot opposite the Lismore Square, a position with this exposure may suit someone who wishes to run a business from home.
