Heather – The Best Of Both Worlds!

Here is your chance to purchase a lovely family home on a large, flat 3,211 square metre block (just under one acre). This property is in a great position, being only two minutes' drive to the village of Coraki and within walking distance to the beautiful Richmond River.

This tidy home has an open plan living area and a generous kitchen that provides ample storage space. There are three bedrooms with built in wardrobes and a main bathroom with a well thought-out design. The home has a newly installed air conditioner and hot water system.

Another bonus of this property is the better brick shed which has been converted into a studio that has its own shower, toilet and kitchenette. The studio is set away from the main house and has its own north facing, timber covered deck. The deck is a lovely place to sit and have a cuppa and catch the morning
