" Chino"- Charming Federation Cottage with Separate Granny Flat!

This timeless Federation home perfectly blends classic charm with modern convenience, offering a warm and inviting atmosphere that is truly one-of-a-kind. Built in 1927, this beautifully restored timber home retains its old-world character while incorporating high-end features throughout, walking distance to town, shops, schools and cafes.

Set amidst some of Alstonville's most historic landmarks, the home is just a short walk to the village centre, placing you within easy reach of local shops, cafes, supermarkets, restaurants, and schools.

Additionally, a newly constructed, council-approved self-contained granny flat provides great potential for rental income, family accommodation, or guest quarters.
