flooring flows throughout the centre of the home and there is internal access from the double garage with remote control, which has an extra workshop area, along with a separate laundry and the second toilet.

Those who love to entertain will appreciate the large alfresco entertaining deck which overlooks the fully fenced rear yard, showcases stunning sunset vistas and provides an ideal spot for entertaining. Spend lazy summer days relaxing or watching the kids, grandkids or family pets play freely here. Alternatively, you may wish to enjoy the front deck which embraces the indoor/outdoor lifestyle with access from the lounge room.

It takes an inspection to appreciate the easy-care established yards and beautiful native gardens which are fortunate to include an impressive fruit orchard with its abundance of sumptuous food just waiting to be picked and enjoyed. This home would be great for retirees or a young family with its ease of living on a level block in the popular village of Alstonville.

Location is key with this property and the benefits of living within a short stroll to the Village shops, schools, cafes and bowling club are not to be overlooked. The current owners have purchased elsewhere and have advised that this home must be sold. For viewings please call exclusive agent Robyn Hunt on 0448 448 758 today.
